

History Road Map

Local History

Local History is the study of the history of a specific local area or community. It provides the opportunity to learn about the history, people, and events that have shaped the place where they live.

A study over time tracing how several aspects of national history are reflected in the locality.

How did Josiah Wedgwood help to shape the future of Stoke-on-Trent?

Know who Josiah Wedgwood was and why he was famous.

Know why 'The Grand tour' had such an impact on J. Wedgwood.

Know what impact J. Wedgwood's vision had on Stoke-on-Trent.

Know how WW2 affected J. Wedgwood's factory and dream.

To place a specific event on a timeline by decade.

To recognise and describe differences and similarities/changes and continuity between different periods of history.

To look at two different versions and say how the author may be attempting to persuade or give a specific viewpoint.

Year 6

Year 5

Year 4

Year 3

Significant historical events, people and places in their own locality.
Why did the Titanic sink?

Know how the local area is different to the way it used to be a long time ago.

Differentiate between things that were here 100 years ago and things that were not (including, building, toys, tools etc)

To recount the life of someone famous from Britain who lived in the past giving attention to what they did earlier and what they did later.

To recount some interesting facts from a historical event To explain why Britain has a special history by naming some famous events and some famous people.

To research the life of someone who used to live in the area using the internet and other sources to find out about them.

Year 2

Year 1

Understanding the world
Past and present

EYFS

Nursery

Begin to make sense of their own life-story and family's history.

Reception

Talk about the lives of the people around them and their roles in society.

Know some similarities and differences between things in the past and now, drawing on their experiences and what has been read in class.

Understand the past through settings, characters and events encountered in books read in class and storytelling.